Jasmine Seabron Stirs Souls with New CD

ATLANTA — If you ever have the pleasure of talking with Jasmine Seabron for more than 30 seconds, you will undoubtedly be intrigued by this twelve year old. The Atlanta born native instantly weaves you into her world of curiosity, extraordinary wit, and her unconditional love for Jesus Christ. Her distinctive style astounded the audience as well as the host during her recent performance on Showtime at the Apollo. She also delivered an unforgettable rendition of All I Need, the title song from her new CD. All I Need, was not initially slated to be released as the first song from the CD. However, Jasmine sings it with such immense energy until it seems appropriate to release it first.

A singer and anointed minister since the age of four, Jasmine stands about 4 foot 8, but her immeasurable conviction and her strong faith go far beyond “once in a while faith,” she lives by her beliefs daily. Although physically blind, her spiritual vision projects wisdom beyond her years. It is her spiritual journey that is reflected through her powerful, yet comforting voice. The ten songs on this CD unveil Jasmine’s love of life and her ability to overcome any obstacle.

The selections, which include a mixture of eight original songs recently written and two gospel standards, provide a glimpse of her courage, strength, and confidence. Her gift of “stirring souls” through her music and ministry is a testament of her blessings. This is evident in the lyrics from There For Moses, a gospel ballad co-written by Jasmine. The song is a reminder of all that God has done and will continue to do for us, said Jasmine.

Best Kept Secret, combines a superb arrangement with very powerful lyrics and lends credit to how Jasmine’s steadfast faith keeps her going. This Best Kept Secret is what she wants listeners to know: there is power in His name and He will answer your prayers.

The listener will be pleasantly surprised as Jasmine eases into the selection, Grow Up in the Name, which carries a simple, yet compassionate message of growing up in the name of Jesus and having faith because “Jesus loves me, this I know.” Jasmine’s voice blends beautifully with the harmonic mix of this song. The lyrics are also reflective of a “normal” day for Jasmine, which includes the ordinary routine of preparing for school, where she is an honor roll student. However, once she gets there, her extraordinary routine begins; praying for her classmates. “I pray for them to be healed when they are sick,” she says, in a manner that clearly is not bragging, just humble and faith-filled.

His Eye is on the Sparrow as well as The Lord’s Prayer, which are Jasmine’s favorites, showcases her vocal abilities and the true power of the effect that these songs have had on her life. She sings them with reverent passion.
